

Growth of Industry in Great Britain
Topics to Know

1. Industrial Revolution
2. Significance of the Agricultural Revolution
 - a. Crop Rotation
 - b. Animal Breeding
 - c. Improved Technology
3. Significance of the Enclosure Movement
4. Significance of Rural-to-Urban Migration
5. Cause of Rural-to-Urban Migration
6. Factors of Production (definition & know them)
7. Significance of the Factors of Production to Industrialization
 - a. Why each factor of production is needed
 - b. Examples of each factor of production and what it is used for in industrial success
8. Laissez-Faire Government
 - a. Two negatives
 - b. Two positives
9. Understand why Laissez-Faire is Important to Industrialization
10. Type of Production Great Britain Dominates
11. Cottage Industry
 - a. How goods are produced
 - b. Why quality is important to production
 - c. How demonstrates a traditional economy
12. First people to Benefit from the Growth of Factories
13. Factory Industry
 - a. How goods are produced
 - b. Why quantity is more important than quality
 - c. How demonstrates a market economy
14. Factory Workers
 - a. Who they were
 - b. Why they were preferred over other workers
15. Mass Production
16. Factory Conditions
 - a. Description of conditions
 - b. Know why conditions were this way inside the factories
 - c. How laissez-faire contributed
17. Labor Unions
 - a. Define
 - b. Goals
 - c. Why created
 - d. Why disliked by factory owners
18. Who were the Luddites