

Cottage Industry vs. Factory Industry T-Chart

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Directions: Using your notes from the online simulation complete the T-chart comparing and contrasting the cottage industry and factory industry by filling in the blanks with the correct information.

Cottage Industry	Factory Industry
Production: Where were goods made: _____ How were goods made: _____ What main tool was used to make goods: _____ Who made the goods: _____ Desired Quality or Quantity: _____ a. Why: _____ _____ Types of Goods Created: _____ _____	Production: Where were goods made: _____ How were goods made: _____ Who made the goods (i.e. who were the factory workers): _____ Why did factory owners prefer these workers: a. _____ b. _____ c. _____ Desire Quality or Quantity: _____ a. Why: _____ _____
Working Conditions: Who controlled the schedule: _____ Was skill needed, if so why: _____ _____ _____	Working Conditions: Describe 4 conditions INSIDE the factory: a. _____ b. _____ c. _____ d. _____
Economy: Traditional Economies are said to be based upon tradition and passed through the family with no advancements in production. Evidence that the cottage industry is a tradition economy: a. _____ b. _____ c. _____	Why were factories so large: _____ _____ Why were conditions so poor: _____ What about society allowed conditions to be so poor: _____ Economy: Market Economies are said to be based upon profit motivation. Evidence that the factory industry was a market economy: a. _____ b. _____ Why is laissez-faire important to a market economy: _____ _____ _____

Factory Workers:

Describe 3 things about factory workers lifestyle:

- a. _____
- b. _____
- c. _____

Why were labor unions created: _____

How did labor unions interfere with the goals of a market economy: _____