

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____ Score: ____/33 Points

World Studies: Industrial Revolution Review (So Far)

Part I: Define the following words associated with the industrial era. Things to consider in your definition (what is it, why was it important, what caused it, what consequences came from it, what is important to it, etc). -6 points

- 1. Industrial Revolution: _____

- 2. Enclosure Movement: _____

- 3. Factory Industry: _____

- 4. Rural-to-Urban Migration: _____

- 5. Urbanization: _____

- 6. Mass Production: _____

Part II: Outline the cause(s) and effect(s) of the following events of the industrial era. – 10 points

Cause	Event	Effect
	Agricultural Revolution
	Enclosure Movement
	Rural-to-Urban Migration
	Urbanization
	Mass Production

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____ Score: ____/33 Points

World Studies: Industrial Revolution Review (So Far)

Part III: Answer the following questions regarding industrialization in Great Britain. - 9 points

1. How did the changes in agricultural production help spur factory growth? _____

2. What is the number one goal of any business/industry? _____
3. Why would factories need many workers to achieve their goal(s)? _____
4. How did the development of the railroads affect industrial growth? _____
5. What was the first industry to develop in Great Britain AND why? _____

6. Why did factories tend to be built along waterways? _____

7. What are two negative effects of urbanization? _____

8. Why was having natural resources important to industrial growth? _____
9. Why were factories concerned with mass production (aka quantity)? _____

PART IV: Answer the following questions by filling out the chart below: (a) Explain what factors under each category specifically helped to start the Industrial Revolution in Great Britain. (b) Explain how those factors influenced the Industrial Revolution (why section). -8 points

Factors Helped Spur Industrial Growth
Capital	Agriculture	Land	Labor
What Factors:	What Factors:	What Factors:	What Factors:
Why:	Why:	Why:	Why: